Introduction

"Find the beauty in the mess"

~Angela

Hello Friends,

By now you are well on your way to defining and refining your design style by using my guide, 8 AMAZING SECRETS TO CREATE A FEELING FOR YOUR HOME!

You've set some design goals for you and your family and now it's time to build your project plan!

No worries, I GOT YOU and I'm here to make it easy and stress free. I've included all of the planning tools I use to get organized, stay on time and anticipate projected challenges before they become a problem.

And, as a bonus I've included a sample mind-map. I use mind-mapping for every aspect of our lives and while some look at mine and think "well,that is a hot mess", to me it's the beauty in the mess that I see unfold as I get my creative game on.

I hope you find these tools helpful. As always, remember I'm only an email or call away so please reach out I love to here from you! And please follow us below on your fav social media to see what we have going on.

Cheers,
Angela

Mind-Map Example

Mind Mapping Your Home Renovation Project

I use mind-maps for every aspect of my life. This is a much prettier example as I generally mind-map on a flip chart I can see in large form and add as creativity moves me. It's not for everyone but if this speaks to you over checklists and planners then try it, I think will enjoy it! -Angela
